

Villa Flora – Arezzo - Tuscany

Located within a marvellous green landscape which looks over the town of Castiglion Fiorentino, villa Flora dominates the entire valley. Next to the ancient and very characteristic, Bagno la Villa Sanctuary, it enjoys a truly privileged position in the most exclusive area of Castiglion Fiorentino. It has been completely restructured following the traditional style of Tuscan rural houses and is fully equipped with the modern comforts

Villa Flora

The guests can enjoy a splendid swimming pool with panoramic view over the Montecchio Castle, an ample garden with olive trees, the rustic wood – fired oven and barbeque and sit in the shade under the pergola around a stone table to enjoy those special relaxing moments “al fresco”.

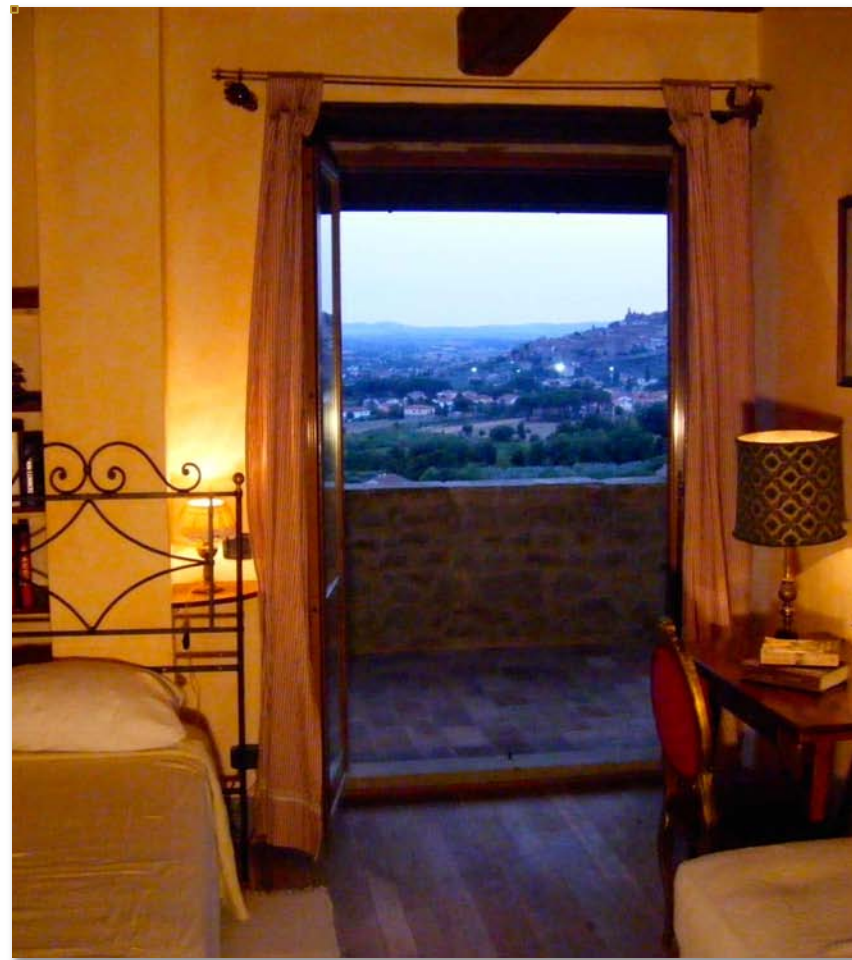

Villa Flora

The Villa has two stair. The large living room with sat TV and fireplace is on the ground floor, as is the fully equipped kitchen which gives onto the ample portico where one can dine overlooking the swimming pool and entire valley. There is also a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom (shower) here. On the upper floor there is another double bedroom with panoramic terrace and en-suite bathroom (shower), two twin bedrooms and another bathroom (bathtub).

Villa Flora

The villa is located between Arezzo and Cortona, a strategic position to visit the most famous cities in the area: Florence, Perugia and Siena, as well as the characteristic hilltop villages for which the area is renowned. Not far from the villa is the dependence where the owner lives, always on hand to help out and give valuable advice.
